

Announcement of Global Distribution Agreement Between LMBPN™ PUBLISHING AND BOOKWIRE GmbH

Deal Includes Global Sales and Distribution of Digital Editions in German, Spanish and Portuguese

(Las Vegas, USA, November 28 2017) -- LMBPN™ Publishing a global leader in indie digital book publishing, has today announced an exciting new partnership with well renowned digital service provider Bookwire GmbH. The agreement involves the distribution of LMBPN's digital catalog in German, Spanish and Portuguese. This partnership will maximize LMBPN's ongoing global success by expanding its audience beyond English-language readers.

LMBPN's digital catalog presently includes over one hundred titles, many of them in the top 1,000 on Amazon.com* and over 50 titles on Audible.com*. To date, LMBPN's leading sci-fi series, The Kurtherian™ Gambit has sold over 450,000 copies in ebook and an additional 525,000 in Kindle Unlimited (based on page read calculations). Additionally, LMBPN has created urban fantasy universes and plans to expand into comic books.

LMBPN's bestselling titles include, Death Becomes Her, Queen Bitch and The Dark Messiah by Michael Anderle; and Restriction by CM Raymond and LE Barbant. Other titles include Waking Magic by Martha Carr; Awakened by Ell Leigh Clarke; Nomad Found by Craig Martelle and Justice Is Calling by Justin Sloan.

Judith Anderle, Chief Commercial Officer at LMBPN said "We are delighted to be partnering with BOOKWIRE for global distribution of our translated catalog in these major languages. Through this distribution agreement, we will increase our global presence in the sci-fi digital book market by reaching readers who prefer to experience our universes in their native languages of German, Spanish and Portuguese. This expanded reach is a major component of our global strategy, which includes increasing our presence in Japan and entering the Chinese markets in their respective languages in 2018."

Jens Klingelhöfer, CEO at Bookwire GmbH adds, "LMBPN is a highly multitalented, progressive and innovative digital publisher with a great future. We are pleased they have chosen to partner with us, using our proven expertise and experience in digital distribution to expand their market."
