She's smart.

A female law officer is teamed up with an ex-military officer who used a centuries old law to get hired as a detective. She finds out Earth and the multi-planet political system are not as fair as she believed.

He's determined.

He finds out you can't use violence to solve everything. He is strong but flawed male who although physically superior does not try to overpower but instead allows his personal nature to support a partner in competition.

Together, they will follow the rot all of the way to the top and out to the rim of known Human space.

From Dragon* Award nominee and Amazon* top-selling author Michael Anderle comes a gripping and exciting series with a large global fan base. Bethany Anne, the strong female protagonist, undergoes physical modifications that turn her into a formidable warrior, righteous and willing to fight to protect anyone who needs help. Her strong ethics, fearlessness, and honesty engender respect from a team of warriors who work with her to devise strategies and tactics to fight the UnknownWorld. Unfortunately, her physical modifications bring about massive challenges that require grit and determination to address and overcome. The twist? Aliens have been modifying humans for millennia. The main character sets out to save Earth from despotically-minded modified humans and aliens bent on subjugating the planet. (*Brand names property of their respective owners.)

Olivia Beaufont likes fixing things and keeping to herself. She's simple like that - but her life is about to drastically change.

Liv is rebel with royal blood who abdicated her birthright. A string of murders changes everything and the House of Seven asks her to take on a role as a Warrior, one of seven positions revered for protecting magic.

Although Liv would rather stay out of the politics and conspiracies that she ran away from years ago, her family needs her. It's only a twelve-year stint until her sister, the next in line, can take over.

So, what's the harm in activating her magic and accepting her place as a warrior?

Everything.
